STATE ROADS IN DEMAND THROUGHOUT COMMONWEALTH.

State Highway Commissioner Hunter Made an Interesting Address at the Commissioners' Convention.

REPEAL OF PRIMARIES ACT.

County Officials at York Do Not Believe That Desired Result Has Been Obtained—Fayette County Wants Lots More Roads than Allowed.

UNIONTOWN, Sept. 17.—County Commissioner M. E. Townsend this morning related some facts in connection with the remarks of State Highway Commissioner James W. Hunter at the recent convention of County Commissioners held at York. Mr. Hunter stated that there have been filed with the Highways Department applications for 3,782 miles of State roads. About 235 miles have been completed and 265 miles are either under construction or contracts; for the work have been awarded. Advertising, have been published to estimates on 74 additional miles of road.

According to the surveys of the Department there are 98,000 miles of public roads in the State. The only county which has not asked for a State road is Juniata, but in contrast to this Chester county has applications in for $2,000,000 worth of roads above the allotted appropriation. Westmoreland county has overstepped the bounds by $1,500,000, while there are enough applications from Fayette to keep the Department building roads for the next 10 years.

Relating to the holding up of the primary election expenses, a resolution was passed as follows: "Resolved, That it is the sense of the State Association of County Commissioners in session at York, Pa., that the term 'compensation of election officers' as used in the Primary Act No. 19 of the year 1907 refers to certain acts controlling pay received for services rendered by said officers at the election, and such acts appear to treat mileage expense incurred in making returns, and are separate and distinct from compensation for services rendered."

"Be it further resolved, That as the Auditor General has taken exception to this construction of said Act, that the secretary of the convention be instructed to communicate with him by mailing a copy of this resolution to him and requesting an opinion from the Attorney General as to his construction of those terms as used in said Act with the view of reaching an amicable adjustment, so that the counties may receive the money so expended for the January and June primaries of 1908." A roll call was taken to ascertain if any county has received any money from the State for primary expenses. All declared they had not.

In connection with the primary Act the following question was discussed: "What amendments are necessary to the Uniform Primary Act in order to make it less expensive to the taxpayers and likely to voter the sentiments of the people?" Frank H. Fay, of Blair county, declared the act ought to be repealed. Others were of the same opinion. The consensus of opinion was that the act did not give the voter desired.

Another question was: "Should not the act require political parties who have a right to have the names of candidates printed on the primary and general ballots to poll two percent of the entire vote cast for any candidate in the election district?" R. F. Hopwood, solicitor of Fayette county, took the stand that any party, no matter how small, should be allowed names on the primary ballot, because he said it was only by independent movements that the two great parties could be kept from getting rotten. Others took the side that a party with a half hundred votes ought not be allowed to put the county to so much trouble and expense.

Commissioner Cook, of Monongahela, asked whether any counties had paid the assessors under the new law. Only one, Erie, had. The commissioners were warned that they run a chance of having to return the money paid under the new law, as the constitution provides that no man's salary may be increased while he is in office. Road mowers were discussed, and other matters of interest during the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker of Champion Celebrate an Important Event.

IT STARTED WITH A ROMANCE.

Started Fifty Years Ago in Search of a Housekeeper and Had a Wife Before He Returned Home—Husband Now 88 Years Old and Wife 70

CHAMPION Sept. 17.—On September 17, 1857 Harry Baker of Westmore and county left his home in search of a housekeeper, his wife having died. He was left with four little children to care for. He stopped at the residence of Christopher Bushnell, State teacher, who succeeded in employing one of Mr. Bushnell's daughters, Elizabeth, who was willing to assist him for a stiff price per week.

They staid at home but while driving along they agreed to change the terms of the first contract whereby she agreed to become his wife instead of his housekeeper. When they arrived at Jones Mills the couple stopped at the then celebrated Jones Mill Hotel, kept by the late R. L. Jones and called in W. Singman, acting Justice of the Peace who closed the bargain making them man and wife.

On Friday September 13, 1907 they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home. Seven children were born to this union five boys and two girls. Two of the boys are still. The three boys and two girls, born of the said union were all present. They are as follows: Henry Baker, the three children Lulu Baker and wife Wesley Laker and three children, Irving Baker, who died yesterday, Mrs. Wm. W. Whipple, his widow and their children, M. S. Baker, husband and five children; Anna Baker Norman wife and one child Phillip, wife and four children. Besides these were a number of relatives and others of which was ex-Judge D. W. G. Dunham who was a witness to the marriage 50 years ago.

Mr. Baker with his wife had cleared a spot and thereon built a cabin house and when we last saw it there is over 150 acres of cultivated land with a good comfortable house, a bank barn, 100 feet by 45 feet and all other necessary buildings all in good condition. The youngest son, Phillip now owns the farm and cares for his parents. The dinner was served in the beautiful sugar grove and was all that any one would wish, after which they had a number of photographic groups taken. Then the Rev. Silas Zumbach of the Lutheran church addressed the gathering after which he presented the couple as a gift of their children $117. $95 of which was in gold.

EXECUTIVE SESSIONS FOR EXECUTIVE BUSINESS.

Every now and then some Town Councilmen or School Directors, puffed up with an exaggerated sense of their self-importance or inspired by a desire to see that the press will examine too closely, some of their shade-covered sins, go to exclude reporters from their meetings by going into "executive session."

There is no such thing as an executive session for either body save perhaps when busy bairns are passing upon appointments. Even then "executive sessions" are of doubtful legality as well as doubtful wisdom.

As a rule newspaper reporters and publishers can be trusted to do right and protect the interests of the community. It is better for the municipal authorities to take them into their confidence, treat them with fairness and earn their confidence and accept them for what they really are—honest, straightforward workers in the same cause.

It is worse than folly for men in public station to try to exclude newspaper reporters from their public meetings. Those who attempt to do this may be likened unto that foolish bird, the ostrich, who hides its head in the sand and imagines its huge shap is concealed from sight. There has never been an executive session in recent years, from the United States Senate down to the smallest township School Board, whose proceedings have not been fully known shortly after adjournment.

Football is punting toward the public.

Judge Gage is an optimist about the business situation. So is Harry Day Wright. Neither was ever accused being impulsive. Democratic politicians have not been fully known to tell the whole tale to those within.

The meetings of borough and township boards should always be open. Like a court of justice, their proceedings and their records are public. The business of neither is private. It is distinctly and emphatically public, and every citizen has a right to be present at the sessions. If he so chooses and wants to, the public record is at all reasonable times. The refusal of these rights is an arrogant and uncharitable usurpation of authority, and may be punished as such. We especially call the attention of some justices of the peace to this fact. They are in danger of losing their commissions.

Citizens may not be denied the right to attend meetings of Town Councils, School Boards and other public bodies, and the reporter of the Unontown Herald who stood his ground and refused to leave a meeting of the Unontown Council simply stood upon his rights. Had he been forcibly ejected from the meeting the persons doing it would have done so at their legal peril, no matter what their official positions may have been.

Officials who make the law, or who administer it, had better inform themselves thoroughly concerning it. It is most unbecoming and reprehensible on the part of such to defy the laws when it is their especial duty to uphold.

THE PULPIT.

The pulpit and the press are probably the greatest moral agencies of the country. There are hypocritical and fanatical preachers and yellow and subsidized journals, to be sure, but as a rule both professions abound in honest and earnest workers. They should be, and they usually do, labor together unselishly for the good of the people.

Rev. J. W. Moody was once an editor of a newspaper and is more competent to discuss the subject than most ministers or editors. He is familiar with the duties and responsibilities, the trials and tribulations, the rewards and the lack thereof of both positions.

He is a strong advocate of a strong editorial page and he gives strong reasons for his contention. It is no figure of speech to say that the freedom of the country depends upon the freedom of the press; but the newspaper that has no opinions to offer on public questions is a colorless publication which has little influence in shaping public opinion, powerless for good or ill. If not the friend certainly not the foe of tyranny.

It is sometimes embarrassing to express one's opinion upon the questions of the hour, and the world is full of moral cowards, but we are glad and proud to say that few of them are found in the newspaper profession; and we are gratified, furthermore, to know that few editors are intolerant of the opinions of others.

If our brethren of the ministry will pardon the observation, we very sag with becoming modesty that the editors might teach them something in this line.

WARMAN'S GREAT FEAT.

The Unontown Standard periodically asks whether Burgess Warman is for the Prohibition or the Anti-Saloon League. He is on both and The Standard wonders which he is going to vote. Some of the Democrat, are wondering too.

Prohibition is utterly opposed to all Democratic traditions. It is true that the Democrats of some of the Southern States have voted them Prohibition, but that form of Prohibition is only intended for the negroes and the poor white trash who vote the Repubican ticket. The Southern men may always do and always will have liquor on and off their tables. The social Virginia to the north and the southern All South must judge for themselves of the Southern life as any of its ancient and honored institutions. This will be served in the home and the club just the same as ever.

The Citizens ticket of Fayette County is a Prohibition ticket. It is headed by a Prohibition candidate for judge. Burgess Warman is not a Prohibitionist. The Citizens ticket has an independent Democratic candidate for Sheriff. Will War in vote for him or for his colleague on the Democratic ticket, I wonder?

It's a daring and dashing character who can ride two horses that don't run in the same class or in the same time.

Brownsville is becoming metropolitan with a vengeance. It develops more of the atmosphere of the black and the headwaters of Fayette county Brownsville seems to have become a center sooner than was anticipated.

Lutrope has some youthful and highly unpolished Indians.

It seems that Connellsville is sometimes the victim of undesirable elements.

Instead of being reduced, the price for insuring young girls on the streets ought to be increased.

Bathing in the reservoirs supplying water for domestic purposes may be conducive to cleanliness, but not to the health of the bathers. Too many persons go to venturesome swimming. It should be forbidden and the inhibition should be strictly enforced.

Like some other towns, Waynesburg has "no" only in name.

Football is punting toward the public.

Judge Gage is an optimist about the business situation. So is Harry Day Wright. Neither was ever accused being impulsive. Democratic politicians have not been fully known to tell the whole tale to those within.

The fox hunters of Washington and Greene counties have organized for protection of the foxes. This is a joke on the rosy fox.

McKeesport has the honor of having a vendor of some boners come sought and unwelcome.

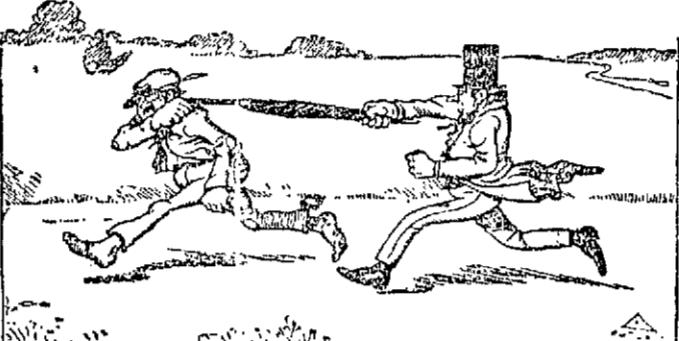

Coons are sometimes groundhogs in the woods and in pastures, but hares are not an intentional creature.

Somerset county litigation is running strongly to coal.

Judge Gary of Steel Corporation Sees Bright Prospects Ahead.

STOCKS CHEAPEST IN 10 YEARS

As Soon as Crops Are Marketed, Says He, People Will Begin to Take Coin Out of Oats Bin and Buy Securities — Business Will Boom Again.

New York, Sept. 17.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the steel corporation, takes an optimistic view of the business outlook. He declares that a general quickening of business will follow the sale of $70,000,000 worth of crops which he expects to take place in a few weeks if the weather remains favorable. In the near future, he said, the public will realize that not in 10 years have they had such a chance to pick up good securities. When that time comes, he said, companies will be enabled to raise funds for renewals, improvements and extensions. Mr. Gary concluded:

"To me the general situation is this: The country was in need of between $70,000,000 and $100,000,000 additional capital and could not get it. The next best thing happened—a slowing down. If the favorable weather continues for the next two or three weeks we will get $70,000,000 for our crops. Then we know the railroads will try to keep ahead the railroad must order new cars and rails. A general quickening of business will follow."

"In my opinion the forthcoming presidential election has been discounted earlier than usual and it has been reflected in the securities market."

10-year sentence for wrecking the Oberlin National bank. Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, former wife of a man who suffered a nervous collapse that almost cost her life, has been her temporary at least, stone blind.

She was carried to the hospital in the female department and Dr. Garrett immediately summoned. When he arrived Mrs. Chadwick was lying on a bed in the hospital in a chill. Although she was conscious and very quiet mentally, her circulation was almost stopped and she was blind.

With many efforts her son stood over her bed urging the physician to do his best to save her. Under strong pressure, restoratives were given and about 10 minutes later she began to regain at least some sight. The collapse was due to the strain she underwent after visiting her son's wife. She has a very nervous heart and any excitement brings on an exaggerated nervous attack.

SHOT FROM AMBUSH

Mine Foreman and Sister Victims of Disgruntled Foreigner.

Pittsburgh, Kan., Sept. 17.—At Crowe'sburg, a new mining camp in the northern part of this county, two persons were killed and two fatally wounded, the result of a grudge held by talkative miners of the district against a mine boss. Charles Gardner, a mine boss, and his sister, Mrs. George Rexford, were waylaid on a lonely road while returning home by a number of Indians and shot and fatally wounded. Gardner returned the fire and shot and killed two Indians, one of whom is unknown.

The Indians are believed to have been drinking. They attacked Gardner and his sister without warning, driving them from the road in the dark. The first bullet struck Gardner on the point of the chin, glanced and entered the breast, lodging in the lungs. At almost the same time Mrs. Rexford was shot in the spinal column of the back. They fell to the ground together. The Indians started to run immediately after firing, but before they had gotten out of reach Gardner had crawled sufficiently to raise himself upon his elbow and fired upon them. Two of the Indians were struck by Gardner's bullets and fell dead in their tracks. The Indians endeavored to carry off the victim. Just then another came and Ottney's head was caught between the cars and his body was drawn through the windows and wedged between the cars. His head was crushed to pulp.

Points Out to Japanese Representatives That Agreement as to Number of Immigrants Has Been Violated

—Japs Admit the Charge.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 17.—Japanese immigrants were the subject of half an hour conference between Premier Laurier, Mr. Leslie, the special Japanese envoy, and Jameson, Canadian General Secretary, and Jameson told him that the gathering was that the Japanese were to be admitted to Canada in one year. The Japanese delegation was told that the arrangement was that not more than 600 persons should arrive in Canada in one year. The Japanese general explained that the arrangement was that the Japanese would be admitted to Canada in one year as the result of the passage of the Immigration Act.

The Japanese believe that their chances for success this fall are exceedingly bright. The Japanese envoy, accompanied by the passage of the Immigration Act in 1906 is one of the causes which will make the Japanese immigration into Canada should be increased.

ROGERS A PARALYTIC.

Standard Oil Millionaire Unable to Appear in Court Because of Illness.

MEMBERS OF FAMILY TESTIFY

Attorneys for Plaintiff Who is Suing Rogers for Fifty Million Dollars Seek in Vain to Secure Indifferent Magistrate's Appearance.

Boston, Sept. 17.—Upon the evidence of members of the family of Henry H. Rogers and the family physician that Mr. Rogers suffered a stroke last July and has since been unable to transact any business Judge Hammond in the supreme court announced that it would be cruel to compel his attendance in court against the adoption of the new charter by the Republicans. Generally speaking, all are supporting the charter with the Democrats almost in soft mutiny.

The proposed charter contains numerous provisions, but the controversy has centered about only three or four of the most important. In the main it considerably increases the power of the Mayor and the city administration by placing the school and park boards under the control of the Mayor. The City Council is also given power to levy taxes. The opponents of the charter argue that the support of their position in the proposed order of things would result in the loss of much power in the hands of one man.

The new charter also includes within its provisions municipal ownership, operation of street and other intraurban railways, subways and tunnels, telephone and telegraph, heating, refrigerating and power plants. Under the provisions the city may buy and lease, and buy and operate, or it may grant franchises on such terms as it chooses.

SEQUEL SOON DUE

Arrests in Capital Graft Case Expected in 36 Hours.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 17.—The state capitol grafters may shortly come along called into the capital criminal courts inside of the next 36 hours.

Warrants for their arrest will be issued as soon as the necessary legal papers can be prepared. How soon this will be depends upon James Scarlat and those associated with him in the preparation of the cases. They have been working day and night for three weeks with a corps of stenographers and typewriters getting ready to proceed against the grafters.

While the attorney general declines to disclose his plans or the names of those who are to be prosecuted, it is almost certain that the defendants will include Joseph M. Huston, the half-million-dollar architect; John H. Sanderson, the chief "criminator"; Congresswoman H. Burd Cassel, in the filing case; "timid" and James M. Shumaker, former superintendent of grounds and his speech affected.

Henry H. Rogers, Jr., corroborated his brother-in-law. He said that there had been only a slight improvement in his father's condition since July and that the only business he had done was to sign three blank checks and give a power of attorney upon a safe deposit box in New York. The last witness was Dr. Pratt, who told the court that he could not state exactly what would be the ultimate result of the attack last July nor to what it was due. He thought it might be apoplexy or perhaps a clot on the brain or a slight paralytic stroke.

Asked about his recent visit to New York, Mr. Gompers replied that he had been in conference with Mr. Small and had been assured that the strikers were holding out well.

"I hope some agreement will be brought about and I shall continue to work to that end. There will be no unconditional surrender by the men," he said.

LADS PERISH IN FIRE

Play With Matches in Outbuilding and Commit Suicide.

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 17.—At Connellsville a stable and wash house on Second street, owned by Abner Howard, was destroyed by fire and two children were burned to death. The dead: Stanley, 5 years old, son of Mr. Howard, and Elmer, 4-year-old son of Mrs. Mary Thompson, a widow who lives nearby.

It is supposed that the two were playing with matches in the loft of the building, which while used as a washhouse, the family was partly full of hay. The flames spread all over the building in a few minutes and inside of half an hour the structure was burned to the ground, only the smoldering mass of debris being left to tell the tale.

Mrs. Thompson, the mother of one of the victims, was confined in Bed were jail for loitering and was released when news came of the tragedy. She is grief stricken.

"Certainly not, unless public opinion forces me to change it," she said doubtfully. "My life has always been perfectly open and aboveboard, not like my husband's."

"Why did he change his name?" asked Beecot eagerly—too eagerly, in fact, for she drew back.

"Why do you ask?" she inquired coldly.

Paul shrank off his shoulders. "An idle question, Mrs. Krill. I have no wish to force your confidence."

"There is no forcing in the matter," responded the woman. "I have taken quite a fancy to you, Mr. Beecot, and you shall know what I do."

"They do not tell me if you would rather not."

"But I would rather," said Mrs. Krill bluntly. "It will prevent your misconception of anything you may hear about us. My husband's real name was Lemuel Krill, and we married him thirty years ago. I will be frank with you and admit that neither of us were confidantes. We kept a public house on the outskirts of Chelmsford, in Essex, called the Red Pig. She looked amazingly ill when she spoke.

"Have you never heard of it before?"

"That's where Showley is," murmured Paul. "Showley?"

"Showley?" echoed Mrs. Krill. "What's that?"

FOR A FREE PRESS.

Former Scottdale Minister Declares Newspapers Have Most Important Mission.

PAPER BY REV. JNO. W. MOODY

Preacher Asserts That With Freedom of Editorial Speech Denied, the Nation Is Enslaved—Suspects Public Enemies.

"Chancery the press and the nation is enslaved. Democracy can only live where there is a free press. The press has a place second to none in the country. There were remarks made Monday morning in a memorial service to Baptist Ministerial Association in the Fourth Avenue Baptist church Pittsburgh, by the Rev. J. W. Moody, former pastor of the Scottdale Baptist church, on the subject, 'The Newspaper as a Pulpit of Democracy.'

"The greatest part of every live newspaper is its editorial page, and unless a newspaper has a vigorous editorial page it has not as much right to exist as a tadpole," he said.

"This little complaint to be made about the city papers is this: I suspect, but it is possible that some of the country papers use their editorial matter when they might devote their columns to local matters and accomplish a great deal more good."

"Cut out the right of the news papers to write editorials and you shackle the Goddess of Liberty. No church can, as many listeners as there are readers of newspapers and the opinions set forth in their editorial columns do more to mold the attitude of the people than it is possible to imagine."

"No one fears the power of the press as much as wrongdoers know that their shabby schemes will be exposed and that the public has put its mark of disapproval on anything it is going to be the hardiest kind of task to get it before the public in any other light. The public often is lulled into insensibility by misleading words which, however soon are disappatated when a strong vigorous editorial puts the true facts before the public as they should be."

"Any person who tries to muzzle the press certainly has no good motives. There is always a strong reason for their wanting to do this and that reason can generally be found pretty close to their own private affairs which could not stand disclosure."
